First system of musical notation. The top staff is a bass clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It contains four measures of music: a whole note F# in the first measure, a whole note F# in the second measure, a whole note G in the third measure, and a whole note G in the fourth measure. The bottom staff is a guitar tablature with two lines labeled 'T' and 'B'. It contains four measures: the first measure has a '9' on the bottom line, the second has a '2' on the bottom line, the third has a '5' on the bottom line, and the fourth has a '2' on the bottom line.

Second system of musical notation. The top staff is a bass clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It contains four measures of music: a whole note F# in the first measure, a whole note F# in the second measure, a whole note G in the third measure, and a whole note G in the fourth measure. A slur connects the notes in the second, third, and fourth measures. The bottom staff is a guitar tablature with two lines labeled 'T' and 'B'. It contains four measures: the first measure has a '4' on the bottom line, the second has a '2' on the bottom line, the third has '(2)' on the bottom line, and the fourth has '(2)' on the bottom line.

Third system of musical notation. The top staff is a bass clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It contains two measures: the first measure has a whole note F# with a slur underneath, and the second measure has a whole rest. The bottom staff is a guitar tablature with two lines labeled 'T' and 'B'. It contains two measures: the first measure has '(2)' on the bottom line, and the second measure is empty.
